AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK OF TEXAS NAMES STEVE DAVIS BANKING CENTER PRESIDENT OF BURLESON BANKING CENTER

Burleson, Texas — November 9, 2011 —American National Bank of Texas, one of the oldest and largest community banks in Texas, today announced the addition of Steve Davis as banking center president of its Burleson location.

Davis brings 29 years of commercial banking experience to American National Bank of Texas. Most recently he served as executive vice president for First Financial Bank in Burleson. Over the years he has served in a variety of management roles and has worked with individuals and businesses in nearly every industry. Davis received his finance degree from Abilene Christian University as well as certification from the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking at SMU.

“I am thrilled to be part of a true community bank that prides itself on serving customers and is involved in the community”, says Davis. “I am also happy to be joining the established team in Burleson and I look forward to helping the bank and its customers grow and prosper.”

In addition to his banking experience, Davis serves on the board of Harvest House of Burleson, Burleson Area Chamber of Commerce, Joshua Area Chamber of Commerce and Chisholm Trail 100 Club.

“We are pleased to welcome Steve to the American National Bank family,” said Perry Ginn, regional president, American National Bank of Texas. “His leadership experience and banking expertise, combined with his knowledge of the Burleson community make him an asset to our organization.”
