Finch Joins ANB North Richland Hills as Commercial Lending Vice President

North Richland Hills, Texas (August 3, 2009)—Cindy Finch recently joined American National Bank of Texas (ANB) as vice president of Commercial Lending for the North Richland Hills location.

Finch brings 28 years of banking experience to her new position with ANB. She comes to ANB from JP Morgan Chase in Fort Worth, where she served most recently as relationship manager. In addition to her banking experience, Finch also has extensive former experience in the securities and insurance industries.

“Cindy has a proven track record of establishing successful client relationships,” said Matt Browning, banking center president for ANB’s North Richland Hills banking center. “She remains very active in the community and has a comprehensive understanding of our client base. Cindy brings to our banking center the skills and experience necessary to deepen client relationships and expand our customer base in this area.”

American National Bank of Texas, founded in 1875 in Terrell, is one of the oldest and largest independently owned banks in the state. With assets of $2 billion, the bank has banking centers throughout North Texas serving Collin, Dallas, Hunt, Johnson, Kaufman, Rockwall, Tarrant and Van Zandt Counties. ANB provides individual and corporate trust, investment and estate planning services through its Wealth Management Group as well as personal and commercial insurance and risk management services through ANBTX Insurance Services, Inc.
