

AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK OF TEXAS ANNOUNCES FUNDRAISING EFFORTS FOR TEXAS SCOTTISH RITE HOSPITAL FOR CHILDREN

Dallas — October 12, 2010 — The American National Bank of Texas (ANB), one of the oldest and largest community banks in Texas, announces their donation-based program for Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children (TSRHC), one of the nation's leading pediatric centers. This initiative contributes to ANB's commitment to support our communities and continue to build quality relationships with local community members.

ANB's donation-based program for TSRHC launches Tuesday, October 12, until Saturday, November 27. During this time, ANB will donate $10 to TSRHC for every new personal and/or business checking account opened or Tell-A-Friend coupon redeemed at an ANB banking center. ANB will donate $5 for every new personal and/or business savings account opened.

"We strive to help make the community of each banking center a better place to live. This unique initiative allows us to raise funds for one of the nation's leading pediatric facilities while promoting their services and the impact their special care has on children and families in Texas," said Robert Hulsey, President and CEO of ANB.

ANB values building quality relationships with customers, community members and local businesses. "We want to continue to give back to our local community through these kinds of initiatives, so we have set our sights high with a goal of raising at least $20,000 for TSRHC by November 27," said Hulsey.
