

AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK OF TEXAS NAMES JAKE HARDIN PRESIDENT OF MANSFIELD BANKING CENTER

Dallas — July 26, 2010 — American National Bank of Texas (ANB), one of the oldest and largest community banks in Texas, today announced the addition of Jake Hardin as president of its Mansfield banking center.

Hardin joins ANB with 15 years of banking experience with over 10 years experience specializing in commercial banking. He has an extensive background in commercial lending in the Mansfield market, having worked at Frost National Bank for 10 years as well as serving as vice president.

“I value relationships with customers and I look forward to developing strong relationships with ANB clients,” says Hardin. “I truly enjoy speaking with my clients in order to learn how their company started and the challenges they faced along the way.”

Hardin had an early start in the banking industry, beginning at the age of 16 as a bank teller. He has worked his way up the corporate ladder, giving him a unique understanding of how to successfully run a banking center, having worked in several different areas of banking.

In 2009, Hardin served as a board member of the Mansfield Area Chamber of Commerce and currently serves on the board for the Mansfield Industrial Park Association. He also serves on the board of directors for the Arlington Sunrise Rotary Club.

“We are so pleased to welcome Jake to the ANB family,” said Perry Ginn, president of Tarrant and Johnson County banking centers, ANB. “His strong community ties will help strengthen our commitment to providing a localized and community-based banking center in Mansfield.”
