

AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK OF TEXAS NAMES RON CORTEZ PRESIDENT OF CITYVIEW BANKING CENTER

Fort Worth, Texas — June 8, 2010 — American National Bank of Texas (ANB), one of the oldest and largest community banks in Texas, today announced the addition of Ron Cortez as President of its Cityview banking center in Benbrook.

Cortez has an extensive background in finance and brings over 23 years of experience building relationships between customers, industry executives and bank management. Cortez comes to ANB from BBVA Compass, where he served as vice president of the commercial banking group, later earning their inaugural Pinnacle Club Award as top producer in 2009. In addition to his banking experience, Cortez has spent 13 years on the board and served as chairman of the board for Volunteers of America – Texas Chapter, sharing his leadership capabilities with the non-profit sector.

“We expect Cortez’s deep experience in the industry will provide excellent leadership as we continue to grow the Cityview market,” said Perry Ginn, regional president, ANB.

As bank president, Cortez will oversee all banking operations, planning, policies, and practices, in addition to ensuring a positive experience for all customers.

“I am very excited to be part of a wonderful community bank like ANB,” said Cortez, “I’m honored to lead a group of employees who value personal relationships and are committed to our customers’ financial success.”
