AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK OF TEXAS RECOGNIZED AMONG TOP 100 PLACES TO WORK BY DALLAS MORNING NEWS FOR 2ND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Terrell, Texas (Nov. 8, 2010)—American National Bank of Texas (ANB), one of the oldest and largest independently owned banks in Texas, was ranked No. 14 in The Dallas Morning News' Top 100 Places to Work in Dallas – Fort Worth (DFW). ANB was the only financial institution to make the list. This marks the second consecutive year for the bank to receive recognition as one of the Top 100 Places to Work in DFW.

“We are honored to be recognized on this prestigious list for the second time,” said Robert Hulsey, president and CEO of ANB. “This award is a testament to our incredible employees who make ANB one of the premier community banks in Texas. It is reward in itself to know that our employees feel valued and believe our company exemplifies strength and leadership.”

ANB was selected based on an extensive survey of employees measuring qualities such as company leadership, compensation and training, workplace flexibility and diversity. The rankings and overall results were announced at a special luncheon on November 3 and appeared in a special publication inserted in The Dallas Morning News on November 7.

ANB was selected among the approximately 1,000 employers in the DFW area who were nominated for the award.
